1. While HUANG K'o-ch'eng (黄克诚), commander of the 12 Army Group (AG), is ill and recuperating in Changsha, T'ANG T'ien-chi (唐天際), his political commissar, has been acting commander.* However, T'ANG is also political commissar of the 21 Army Group, which prevented him from accompanying the 12 Army Group to Manchuria. Consequently, CH'EN Po-chun (陳伯鈞), deputy commander of the 12 AG, was promoted to commander when the forces went to the Northeast. He commands one of the two frontline commands in Korea, which are subordinate to the Chinese People's Volunteer Army Headquarters in Mukden.
